20 WRITING STYLE — all parts should be directed at the assigned audience!

3 introduction gives a terse summary of the final product
2 introduction outlines structure of report (road map)
3 the structure of the report makes sense given the audience
3 report focuses on the final product rather than the assignment
3 paragraphs have clear point, well-organized
1 provide adequate transition from section to section
5 spelling, grammar, sentence structure

General comments on your writing style:

20 GIVING MAX THE LATE LAB REPORT

4 adding give to help
4 pattern
12 action and method (as needed). For style, one can sometimes avoid repeating code by separating out functionality which is common to two methods is separated out into a third method which is called by both.

45 INDEPENDENTLY CHOSEN OBJECTIVES

15 description
5 class hierarchy
10 English description of objectives and realization
30 programming
6 putting code in appropriate classes
6 using dynamic method selection rather than conditionals
6 correctly differentiating classes, objects, and names
6 other avoidance of unnecessary complexity
6 freedom from bugs

15 DESCRIPTION OF FUTURE EXTENSIONS

5 emphasizing the most important structural changes to implement suggested improvements
10 appropriate suggestions on changing or adding to the class hierarchy, the interface, the instance variables, and/or the methods

TOTAL