Success

Success is achieving goals. It is done by credit or respect, and merit rather than popularity. It is an extraordinary achievement. It is intertwined with ideas of equality and achievement. It is usually known in economic terms. How you look at success with your team varies greatly.

What drives athletes to become successful? Competition, hard work, dedication, motivation, team work, desire to be number one, achieving objectives, and bringing success to your nationality.

Race and religion has a huge part in becoming successful or overcoming obstacles. A woman that found great success was Babe Diedrickson. She was in the Olympics and found success. She later was a golfer and became successful at that. To find success you should be prepare and focused. There are two types of success. Personal and Financial. Personal is any success in life and Financial is making money.

The great coach John Wooden said, “Success is peace of mind which is a direct result of self-satisfaction in knowing you did your best to become the best that you are capable of becoming. He came up with the pyramid of success.

A final quote to sum things up would be, “The greater the risk, the greater the reward. However, failure is greater too. The greatest risk of all is not taking one.”
